7th Global Transparency Conference at Copenhagen Business School on May 19-21, 2021

Urgent commercial, political and societal issues related to transparency - propelled by digital transformations with all their promises and dilemmas - need our scholarly attention, not least in pandemic times. Under the overarching theme of Rethinking Transparency: Challenging Ideals and Embracing Paradoxes we welcome you to a stimulating intellectual and cultural setting for the 7th Global Transparency Conference at Copenhagen Business School in the heart of Copenhagen 19-21 May 2021. We expect up to 150 participants.

The spirit of the Global Transparency Conference is one of cross-national and cross-disciplinary collaboration and with a scholarly discourse that engages in social science debates.

Now more than ever this research is relevant to the global society, and we are looking forward to seeing you in Copenhagen in 2021.

Local Organizers: Leopold Ringel, Mikkel Flyverbom, Lars Thøger Christensen, Hans Krause Hansen and Frederik Schade
